

District of Minnesota

Prison and Reentry Education Program

May 20, 2020

2:30-5:00 p.m.

The Prison and Reentry Education Program addresses the questions of defendants and their families regarding sentencing, surrender, and reentry to the community. Information presented includes:

- security levels within the Bureau of Prisons
- what defendants should and should not bring on their report day
- expectations of inmates and a typical day within the Bureau of Prisons
- halfway house placement and what to expect as your imprisonment ends
- expectations and requirements of supervised release
- on-line resources, including materials from the Bureau of Prisons

A panel including a U.S. Probation Officer, representatives from a halfway house and the Bureau of Prisons, and defendants who have already completed their prison sentence will be available to answer more specific questions.

The program will be presented at the Minneapolis Federal Courthouse, 300 South Fourth Street, 5th Floor Conference Room, Minneapolis, MN.

Attendance is voluntary, but registration is required if you plan to attend, as seating is limited. Two family members per defendant (age 16 and older) are welcome to attend. To register for the program or for more information, email prep@mnp.uscourts.gov or call 612-664-5432. Please include your first and last name, defendant's name (if you are a family member), and a telephone number where you can be contacted.

This program is typically presented three times each year; the next program will occur in September 2020. If are you unable to attend the upcoming program but would like more information about future dates, contact your probation officer.

All defendants awaiting sentencing are notified of this program. If you are part of a multi-defendant case, codefendants may attend the same program. If you have further questions or concerns, please advise your attorney or probation officer.
